Economic Council Set Up In Germany By U.S., Britain

By WES GALLAGHER

BERLIN, May 29.—(AP)—United States and British occupation authorities agreed today upon the establishment of an all-German economic council—first step toward a united German self-government—to speed reconstruction of their economically merged zones.

This agreeemnt, subject of weeks of discussion, was announced by the American military governor, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, and the British deputy military governor, Lt. Gen. Sir Brian Robertson.

Size Not Announced.

The exact size of the economic council was not announced, but American informants said it would be approximately 54 members. This would represent a compromise between the British desire for as large a body as possi-

Red Move To Get Atom Veto Opposed By U.S., Britain

LAKE SUCCESS, May 29.—(AP)—The United States and Britain, determined to prevent any country or individual from escaping United Nations punishment for atomic crimes, stood united today in opposition to a Soviet proposal which would put atomic energy controls within reach of the Security Council's veto.

The two Western powers, backed by Canada, made plain their stand during a closed meeting of the working committee of the U. N. atomic energy commission.

Closed Meeting Today.

The committee was scheduled to hold another closed meeting today, but most delegates agreed that hopes for solving the basic differences between the United States and Soviet Russia were slim.

The committee is specifically considering 12 amendments submitted by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko to

Texas Spending, Taxes Eyed

AUSTIN, Tex., May 29—(AP)—The conference committee report on departmental appropriation bill will probably be ready for consideration Monday morning, Capt. C. S. McLellan of Eagle Lake told the house of representatives today.

With the conference report on the biennial appropriation for higher education also reported nearly ready for house and senate study, there was a strong possibility that the 50th Legislature would be ready for final adjournment by the end of next week—or earlier.

Proponents of new taxes apparently have little chance for success, although the house today formally urged the senate and Gov. Beauford H. Jester to approve the house-passed national gas tax bill for rural roads.

McLellan indicated the departmental appropriation for the next two years, as recommended in the conference report, would be in the neighborhood of $42,000,000. He said a few details remained to be worked out before the bill could be mimeographed and placed on representatives' desks.

The departmental bill is expect-

RAIN, HAIL AND COLD ENDANGER CROPS IN MIDWESTERN REGION

LARGE SECTIONS HIT BY ABNORMALLY LOW TEMPERATURES TODAY

CHICAGO, May 29.—(AP)—Field work in the nation's corn belt, already long delayed by spring rains, was near a standstill today because of rain, snow and sleet and farmers were warned a late spring frost may sweep across sections of the midwest tomorrow

A mass of cold air from the MacKenzie Basin in Canada extended over the area and temperatures dropped to near freezing in many sections and below 32 degrees in parts of the Dakotas and Minnesota.

Heavy Snow Falls

Snow fell to a depth of 12 inches in Nebraska, to more than five inches in Wyoming and measured four inches in Iowa. Snow and sleet also swept over parts of Colorado, Minnesota, South Dakota and Wisconsin. The lowest temperature in the cold belt yesterday was 15 above at Eckman, N.D.

The unseasonable cold snap forced a change of plans Thursday for the Senior High school commencement services at which Gov. Beauford H. Jester is to be the principal speaker.

R. A. Armistead, principal of the high school, announced the services will be held in the school auditorium at 8 p. m. Friday instead of at Tiger Field as originally planned.

UNIQUE COLD WAVE SURPRISE TO BOTH AMATEUR, EXPERT WEATHER GUESSERS, LOCAL SAGE REVEALS

A "cold wave" like the one that whizzed into Corsicana Thursday is similar to the rattlesnake in one respect, according to R. P. Bates, assistant cashier of the State National Bank, who dabbles in weather much as some people collect old coins and toy elephants.

It strikes, Bates said, without warning anybody, particularly amateur weather students.

Shuffling money around in his cage at the bank Thursday, Bates said that he, personally, was totally unprepared for such an odd thing as a 49-degree low in such a beautiful springtime.

30 Minutes Warning

"Thirty minutes", he said. "That's about all the warning one gets on these things. First time in twenty-five years, I understand, that such a thing as cold weather like this has ventured forth".

Hanging in the cage was a weather instrument, probably a barometer. Bates looked at it and motioned to it, but it was apparent it hadn't done its duty by giving at least a 24-hour indication of the chilly weather to come.

"What we have today," he said "is part of Canada. This cold mass started moving in on us. As the usual thing by the time such a cold wave reaches this far it has been liquidated, torn up rather well by warm winds. They start often, but seldom get as far as this one has without being subdued".

No Warm Air

This particular one, just breezed right on through and apparently failed to meet a single challenge from a warm breath along the way.

"Weather students", Bates explained, "knew that there would be thunderstorms followed by cooler weather. That was easy, and a prediction of that kind was apparent. Thed did not know it would be thunderstorms and cold".

Chilly weather such as was on hand—unheralded and unpredicted—is similar to the tornado, another form of weather that usually catches weather experts with their barometers down.

The tornado gives no more than 30 minutes warning, either, and by then it is time to hunt a cellar.

Corsicanans, however, were stirred by the winter-in-May aspect. Topcoats were seen here

THUNDERSTORMS, RAIN, HAIL COMMON; SOUTH TO BE COLDER TONIGHT

By The Associated Press

Temperatures dropped to below freezing in Texas today as the coldest late-May norther on record swept the state.

Lowest reported reading was Dalhart's 31 degrees. Pampa had 34. Rain, hail and thunderstorms were widespread.

Overcoats and stoves stored for the summer were brought back into use.

All-Time Lows Tumble

All-time lows tumbled in many areas, including Dallas and Austin. The 52 degree minimum was the lowest May 29 in Austin since the weather bureau began keeping records in 1895.

The cold front moved to the coastal area, where much colder weather is forecast for tonight and tomorrow.

In Dallas, the temperature dropped 41 degrees from yesterday's high of 89. The 48 degree reading was far below the all-time low for May 29. Previous low was 60 degrees in 1917.

HAIL REPORTED IN SOME SECTIONS OF COUNTY THURSDAY

Varied weather conditions were reported in Navarro county Wednesday night and Thursday morning.

A low of 49 degrees was registered in Corsicana.

Hail fell in the Pursley community Thursday morning about daybreak, Fred M. Copeland, county commissioner, reported, but no serious damage was suffered. He said considerable hail was on the ground.

Hail fell at Blooming Grove about midnight, but the damage was slight.

Joe George, county commissioner, said that a big rain was received in the Barry community and that water was standing in the fields Thursday morning.

Carl McMullan, county commissioner, who resides at Chatfield, reorted that no precipitation had been received in that area early Thursday, while a light rain fell at Kerens, about the same as in Corsicana—.18 inch. Hail also fell here.

No reports were available from the extreme southern and southeastern sections of the county.

LEGION MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE AT CITY PARK FRIDAY

Observance of Memorial Day, Friday, May 30, here will be featurer with the Memorial Day Services, sponsored by the American Legion, honoring the dead of both wars at 10 a. m. The services will be held at the City Park monument with the principal address slated to be delivered by George O. Nokes, Jr., Navarro county legislator. Music will be provided by the American Legion band. John Gravelle, baritone, will give appropriate songs. The benediction will be pronounced by Rev. E. F. Bohmfalk, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Banks, the post office, AAA and other federal offices of the city will be closed, while the Retail Merchants association, city hall and courthouse will be open as usual.

Commencement exercises for Corsicana Senior High School will be held Friday evening.

CONTROLS ON UNIONS, STRIKES PROVIDED IN SENATE-HOUSE PLAN

COMPROMISE REACHED AFTER HOUSE PROPOSAL TO EXEMPT SOME OUT

WASHINGTON, May 29—(AP)—Congressional conferees on legislation designed to check strikes and labor union activities reached final accord today on a compromise bill.

An agreement to scrap a house provision which would have excluded food processors from collective bargaining rights was the last action taken by the conferees before returning the measure to the house and senate for further action.

Vote 7 to 3

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters the committee decided to remove this controversial section from the final draft and leave the matter to interpretation by the National Labor Relations Board.

This means it continues a matter of dispute so far as the NLRB and the courts are concerned.

Taft reported the compromise bill was approved by seven of the 10 conferees.

House Makes Concessions

The final draft represents important concessions to the senate by the house conferees, who agreed to abandon a near-blanket ban on industrywide collective bargaining and a provision authorizing private employers to seek injunctions against some strikes and boycotts.

The house group headed by Rep. Hartley (R-NJ) made it clear throughout the discussions that they were yielding on these and other provisions to get a bill congress would pass over a veto, if necessary.

The final draft goes to the house and senate for ratification, then to the White House for Mr. Tru-

Summer Prosperity In Texas Seen Even If Recession Comes

AUSTIN, Tex., May 29—(AP)—A prediction of continued prosperity for Texas during the summer, coupled with a statement that Texas employment will not be drastically hit should recession strike the national economy, came from the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission today.

New industries, lowered freight rates and a small but steady rise in employment indicate that Texans will remain prosperous in the summer months, the TUCC said.

More Jobs Seen

Employment opportunities improved generally during April with the increase in spring hiring and forecasts for June from the 17 principal labor market areas show a continued uptrend in employment. In addition to the seasonal rise in construction and agricultural employment, the TUCC said it expected more workers will be needed in food processing, lumber,

Bank Deposits Are Issue In Orphanage Case Trial Today

By MAX B. SKELTON

BROWNSVILLE, May 29.—(AP)—Deposit slips on the Santa Rosa negro orphanage's account at the First National Bank of Mercedes continued today to monopolize the attention of participants in the federal court trial of Mathes and Ruth Coleman, negro operators of the orphanage who are charged with using the mails to defraud.

H. G George, cashier of the bank, told the court it was his policy to break deposits into separate totals for cash and checks and he had not known that other tellers had not made such separation.

A. G. Asker, assistant cashier at the bank, yesterday testified it would be impossible for anyone to determine the amount of cash involved in orphanage deposits he had handled.

Cash Checks Together

He said he had received approximately 95 per cent of the orphanage's deposits during 1944 and 1945 and had entered separate figures for cash and checks only when requested by the customer.

At the request of U. S. Asst. Dist. Atty W. R. Eckhardt, George told the court he had checker orphanage deposits he had handled and

Slash In Army Fund Proposed By House Panel

BY WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON, May 29.—(AP)—The army's 1948 military budget was cut 8.3 per cent by the house appropriations committee today despite testimony from General Eisenhower and Secretary Patterson that "real danger" lies beyond the "irreducible minimum" of men and money they had requested.

If congress upholds the committee, the army will receive $5,240,980,423 in new appropriations for the fiscal year starting July 1. President Truman had asked $5,716,500 for the army's military activities, exclusive of foreign relief and other civil functions to be financed in a later bill. For the current year military activities appropriations totaled $7,263,542,400.

Current Funds Cut.

The committee thus slashed $475,909,077 from next year's requests and cut $2,022,559,977 below current year funds.

It did, however, approve the army's full request for $280,000,000 in contract authority to buy new airplanes.

In addition to the budget cuts the committee cancelled $1,100,000,000 of money appropriated for the current and prior years but not spent. The army concurred in the cancellation. Its finance officers explained that (A) the money was not included in the 1948 budget and (B) was no longer needed for

SPECIAL SESSION OF CONGRESS ON FOREIGN POLICY IS POSSIBLE

WASHINGTON, May 29.—(AP)—The possibility of a special foreign policy session of congress late this year unless major differences between Russia and the Western powers are removed was raised today by a high-ranking congressional Democrat.

He predicted the administration will await the outcome of the U. N. general assembly in September and the London Council of Foreign Ministers in November before reaching the decision.

He said if substantial progress has not been made by then in resolving East-West friction, this country must consider how its power and wealth can be used independently to restore economic stability outside the immediate sphere of Soviet influence.

COMPROMISE SLASH IN INDIVIDUAL LEVY IS REACHED QUICKLY

FINAL ACTION POSSIBLE IN BOTH HOUSES MONDAY BUT VETO THREAT SEEN

WASHINGTON, May 29.—(AP)—Senate and house conferees agreed today on final terms of a $4,000,000,000 a-year income tax cut to take effect July 1.

The measure provides for individual slashes ranging from 10.5 per cent to 30 per cent.

The senate bill was accepted by the conferees except for one change in rate reduction brackets.

15 Per cent Cuts

The area of 15 per cent cuts was made effective from $136,720 of taxable income of $302,400.

The senate had provided for a 15 per cent reduction between $72,750 and $302,000.

Senator Millikin (R-Colo), head of the senate conferees, said both houses would expedite action on the legislation.

It is expected to come up in the house Monday, and possibly later the same day in the senate.

Truman Veto Possible

The big question remaining is whether President Truman will sign or veto the tax cuts. He has maintained that the present is not a

Farm Fund Cut Is Reduced Slightly As Bill Passes House

WASHINGTON, May 29.—(AP)—The Republican congressional economy drive was still rolling along today, but it was beginning to develop some squeaks.

Over 2 1-2 Billion Saved.

This brought to slightly over $2,610,000,000 the claimed savings in the house drive to cut $6,000,000,000 from the president's budget for the year starting July 1.

With only five more 1948 supply bills to be handled, there were

MRS. HERMAN GOERING HELD AS NAZI, TO FACE TRIAL; ANOTHER WAR CRIMINAL TAKES OWN LIFE

NUERNBERG, Germany, May 29.—(AP)—Gen. Franz Boehme, indicted for war crimes allegedly committed during the German occupation of Yugoslavia, died early today of a skull fracture suffered in a suicide leap in Nuernberg prison.

Boehme eluded guards while walking in a corridor in a third-floor tier of cells last night and hurtled over a rail. His fall was broken by a catwalk two tiers below.

American prison officials said he died two hours later.

Boehme was one of the principal defendants in a case prepared by the United States against 12 German military leaders in the Balkans and Norway. He was indicted May 10 on charges that he rounded up hostages and issued orders for their execution.

Indicted with him were two field marshals, List and Von Weichs, and nine other generals.

Boehme was the fifth important prisoner to commit suicide in the American-guarded Nuernberg prison. Three, including Hermann Goering were defendants before the international military tribunal.

MOTHER BETTER, TRUMAN BACK IN CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, May 29.—(AP)—President Truman returned to the capital today from a 12-day visit with his ailing mother, Mrs. Martha Truman, in Grandview, Mo.

The President's plane the "Sacred Cow," landed at the National Airport at 12:09 p. m., CST after a flight from Kansas City. Before leaving there at 8:06 a. m. Mr. Truman had received assurances that the condition of his 94-year-old mother is improved.

Officials Greet President.

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder and top White House officials were on hand to welcome the President, Mrs. Truman and their daughter, Margaret.

The President, his wife and daughter, Margaret, took off at 8:05 a. m. (CST) from the Fairfax airport in Kansas.

Shortly after arising in his apartment at the Hotel Muehlebach here, the President telephoned Grandview to get a report on 94-year-old Mrs. Martha E. Truman. Her surprising comeback during the past few days enabled him to give up a 12-day vigil at her bedside in nearby Grandview, Mo.

"Still On Mend."

He told reporters at the airport his mother "had a good night" and was "still on the mend, thank goodness."

He said he got his assurances from his sister, Miss Mary Jane Truman, just before leaving his hotel.

His mother, he thinks, "is going to get along all right."

"I hope so," he added fervently.

Presidential Secretaries Charles G. Ross and Matthew J. Connelly and the President's military and naval aides accompanied Mr. Truman.

NATIONS FACING GRAVE PERIL NEED EXAMPLE OF HEZEKIAH*

Miiraculous Victory Over Assyria Was By Secret Force of Jehovah - - Turning to God For Help in Time of Trouble - - Taking Counsel With God's Prophet.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS

Again the Sunday School Lesson lies parallel to present conditions. The nations of today are facing large-scale perils. The feel of another war is in the air—a war that will make Assyria's aggressions seem like child's play. Sober scientists predict as possible the complete wiping out of civilization. Statesmanship seems unable to stop the on-march of this supreme disaster. Even the most heedless of a careless generation should be giving thought and study to this gravest of human crises.

There is counsel for us in this ancient story. The Power that came to the help of Hezekiah still awaits the seeking for succor of the people who have named the Lord's name. The legions of spiritual force should swing into action. The Church of Christ should be turning to desperate prayer. Christians are organizing anew for large-scale action, and are raising vast sums of money: but are they praying enough? The present emergency should drive us all to our knees.

As It Was

The situation in Palestine at the time of our Lesson was this: In the year 722 B. C., the northern kingdom, Israel, had been broken and carried off to Assyria as prisoners. It had flouted the God of its fathers and fallen into the multiform sins of the neighboring heathen nations. It had disregarded all the calls of Jehovah and His prophets. So with this extreme punishment it disappears from history as a nation.

Judah, or the southern kingdom, continued to live for 125 years longer. It had a succession of kings, some bad and some good. Preeminent among the latter was Hezekiah, who had for his counsellor Isaiah, the prophet. He made many blunders; but in extenuation we must remember that he lived under the black cloud of the all-conquering Assyrian menace.

When things looked darkest for his nation, Hezekiah, by Isaiah's advice, defied Assyria and made preparations to withstand a siege. The enemy swarmed about Jerusalem in apparently irresistable force. As Byron's familiar poem has it.

"The Assyrian came down like the wolf on the fold
And his cohorts were gleaming in purple and gold."

The Mysterious Victory

In his extremity, Hezekiah, a devout king, spread his plight before the Lord. He learned the devout person's basic lesson, that the way out is the way up. "Man's extremity is God's opportunity." Rock-bedded in the Christian's faith is the truth that the Heavenly Father has resources beyond our imagining. His legions are always at the stand-to. His armory holds weapons beyond the power of the atomic bomb.

Sennacharib's vast army lay as locusts about Jerusalem. Then, suddenly, beyond any man's speculation or devising, they were all dead! The sword of the Lord had wrought a mighty miracle. Assyria, the inconquerable, lay broken and defeated. And back in Ninevah the king was shortly slain by his two sons.

More than once I have stood on the ruined walls of Ninevah, and surveyed the completeness of the devastation of the great and conquering empire. It is an uninhabited waste, with the reputed tomb of Jonah as its outstanding structure. A bridge of boats over the Tigris River connects Ninevah with the City of Mosul. The women of Mosul do their laundering on the Ninevah side of the stream. "Sic transit gloria mundi."

Call in the Preacher

We may imagine the effect upon surrounding nations of the mysterious defeat of Assyria. Ambitious and expanding Babylon must have been especially affected, for her spies had already seen the treasures of Jerusalem.

Our lesson for today is Hezekiah's faith in God, and his following of the counsel of the prophet Isaiah. We, too, need to call in the preachers. It is spiritual light and leading and power that our imperilled nations need. Many leaders are paying lip-service to the place of spirituality in our present plight. But we are not adequately hearing from God's seven thousand, who have never bowed the knee to Baal.

If the Church were to pay as much heed to the proclamation of her eternal Message for the present time as she is now paying to organizations and money-raising, we might hope to see more defeated Assyrias. The current call is for prayer, more prayer, united prayer, a veritable storming of heaven, that Hezekiah's God may intervene for the sage of His Kingdom and people. We believe—do we not?—that

"Still behind the dim unknown
Standeth God within the shadow,
Keeping watch over His own."

Jack Stroube recently completed a 1500 yard pond on his farm west of Richland. The pond, planned and located for better grazing and water distribution for the farm, was constructed with a dozer and carry-all. Assistance in staking the pond and checking for completion was given by personnel of the Wortham soil conservation service office.

According to the Gregory brothers of the Birdston conservation group, near Streetman, and Pete Ross, of the North Powell conservation group, cotton came to a better and quicker stand where planted following Austrian winter peas and vetch then it did on land where winter legumes were not grown. The mellow condition of the soil, which formerly packed tightly after each rain, is the reason given for the favorable working condition of the land.

The 75 acre field of hubam clover on the O. M. Rector farm south of Purdon, has attained an excellent growth for this time of year.

Hubam clover on the David farm south of Pickett that came up in mid-February is now blooming.

R. L. Harris finds that his eight acres of lovegrass is up to an excellent stand.

Miss E. Richey recently seeded 15 acres of oat land to Bermuda. The oats were used as a winter grazing and cover crop and left the land in excellent condition for seeding.

Brush clearing and seeding of Bermuda along creek bottoms has recently been completed by T. H Bowden of the Tupelo conservation group.

R. L. Perry Honored On 80th Birthday

R. L. Perry was surprised with a celebration in honor of his 80th birthday Thursday evening, May 15, at city park. Those present enjoyed a picnic lunch followed with ice cream and cake.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Acord, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. MISS TOMMIE LACY FUNERAL SERVICES THURSDAY MORNING

Funeral services for Miss Tommie Lacy, retired school executive, who died Tuesday evening at the P. and S. Hospital following an extended illness, were held Thursday morning from the McCammon Funeral chapel. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery. The rites were conducted by Rev. Erwin F. Bohmfalk, pastor of the First Methodist church, of which Miss Lacy had been a long-time member.

A native of Mississippi, Miss Lacy taught one year in that state before coming to Texas, where she taught one year in McKinney and two terms in Frost before joining the Corsicana school faculty in 1896. She retired in 1941 after serving several years as librarian at the junior high school following extended tenures as principal of the David Crockett and Wm. B. Travis schools.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Cora Neblett, Waco; a brother, Glenn Lacy, Clarksville, Miss.; Mrs. C. S. Stroud and Mrs. Dubart Miller, both of Corsicana, Mrs. Fannie Hilliard, Hobbs, N. M., and Mrs. George Lord, New York City, nieces; Dr. T. O. Wills, Corsicana, and Roger Neblett, Waco, nephews.

Pallbearers were Dr. Wills, C. S. Stroud, Dr. Clyde Stroud, Dr Dubart Miller, Mr. Neblett, Halsey Settle, W. P. McCammon and W. H. Norwood.

Honorary pallbearers were friends of the family.

Rebekah Degree Conferred.

The Rebekah degree was conferred on two candidates Tuesday night at the regular meeting of Home Rebekah Lodge No. 128.

Visitors were present from Hillsboro, Ennis and Mexia.

Want to Run a "Collective" Farm?

Was reading the other day about the "collective" farms they have in certain countries. It seems the folks who run them have plenty of help . . . good hours . . . and the best equipment.

Sounds pretty nice — till you learn that the "farmer" doesn't own his land, or even farm it, in our sense. He takes orders from the state; produces whatever they want him to produce, at prices they set. Even his off-hours are spent according to state regulations.

No, that would never go here.

We're willing to work hard, but we like to farm the land our own way, put our own value on the crops, and relax as we like—if only with a temperate, companionable glass of beer.

From where I sit, collective farming may produce results. But the American way—freedom to work and relax as we see fit—is what makes this country a great place to live. So let's not change it!

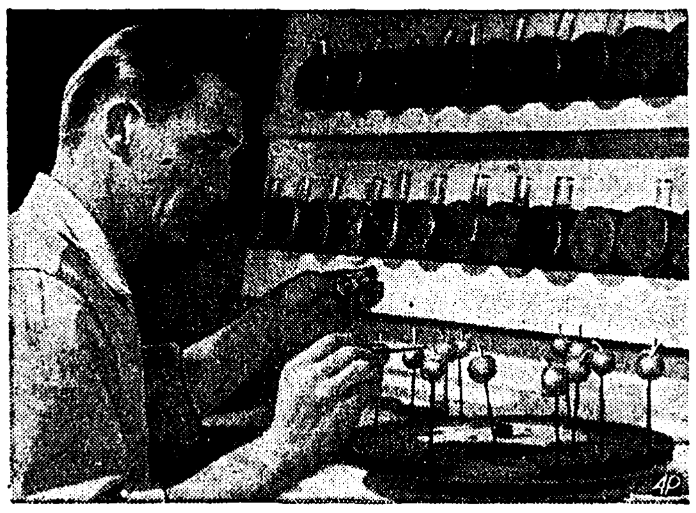
Four New Bug Killers Rival DDT



WORM IN APPLE is a guinea pig of Entomologist Kenneth Lamansky planting coddling moth worms for a new test.

BUG JUICE cocktails mixed up for a test by Thelma Clark.

By ALEXANDER R. GEORGE

AP Newsfeatures Writer.

WASHINGTON—Versatile DDT rates as king of the insect killers but other powerful new insectides can do some pest-conquering jobs better than DDT.

Four of the most promising among these insecticides are chlorinated hydrocarbon, hexaethyl tatraphosphate, benzene hexachloride, and chlorinated camphene. Tests have indicated their prospective value in farm field, garden, orchard and possibly the home. All four are still in the experimental stage.

Because their poison hazards are not fully known, their use has not yet been recommended to the American farmer or to the general public by the department of agriculture's bureau of entimology and plant quarantine. The bureau is studying possible effects of the four insecticides on man, animals, wildlife, plants, soils and beneficial insects.

'1068' Is a Killer.

Chlorinated hydrocarbon, called "1068" is considered more deadly than DDT to a number of insect pests. Among these are the housefly, the American cockroach, the Colorado potato beetle, the pea aphid, and the squash bug. Against grasshoppers in alfalfa it his killed 90 to 100 percent of these insects at the time of treatment.

Sprays containing a very small amount of "1068" per gallon of water, applied at the rate of one gallon per square yard, killed all Japanese beetle larvae in the area. This insecticide showed some promise against the tarnished plant bug on cotton and lygus bugs on alfalfa.

Hexaethyl tetraphosphate has been particularly effective in experimental use against several sucking insect pests and mites which damage fruit and other food plants. Although it is highly toxic to man and animals, it decomposes rapidly. Therefore its residues may be of little hazard to people and animals when sprayed on fruits, vegetables or forage crops.

When properly diluted, hexaethyl tetraphosphate apparenty does not injure plants. Of 133 different plant species in greenhouses, only tomato and chrysanthemum were injured following aerosol applications of the insecticide. Complete control of certain greenhouse mites was obtained following applications at 3-day intervals.

Benzene hexachloride has shown excellent control of most cotton insects. An experimental dust mixture containing benzene hexachloride, DDT and sulphur was very effective against severe infestations of boll weevils, bollworm, cotton leafworm, cotton aphid and red spider.

Odor is a Drawback.

The bureau of entomology says that benzene hexachloride in its present, generally available commercial form has a persistent, unpelasant odor. This odor prohibits its use in the home or on maturing fruits or vegetables. However, it has less residual effect that DDT. It kills insects as a stomach poison, contact insecticide, or fumigant Chlorinated camphene, "3956" for short, is similar to DDT in that it has a shock knockdown and kill and a spray residue that is persistant. In experiments, it has been very effective in killing young European corn borer larvae.

Against body lice, "3956" seems to be more toxic and persistant than DDT. On the other hand, it appears to be less toxic to houseflies than DDT. In laboratory tests it showed considerable toxicity to the southern army worm, certain cutworms, and the celery leaf tier.

ed to fall slightly under the senate's recommendation of $43,145,177. At $42,000,000 it would exceed the current appropriation by some $14,000,000.

$45,000,000 Fund Seen

An appropriation of approximately $45,000,000 for higher education is anticipated. This would be a sharp reduction from the house recommendation of $56,797,101. Conference committee members say that elimination of appropriations for building purposes are responsible for the cut

The issue of taxation recurred in the house today when Rep. E. O. Chapman of Sulphur Springs urged "the senate and the governor to cooperate with them by putting into operation a rural road program by passing and signing house bill No. 44."

HB 44 is the natural gas gathering tax measure, designed to raise an estimated $20,000,000 a year for constrution of farm-to-market roads. The controversial bill passed the house several months ago and has since been dormant in the senate.

Approval of the resolution came as house tax proponents staged what appeared to be a last-ditch fight for a new natural resources tax measure. Their hopes of pushing another tax bill through faded last week when State Comptroller George Sheppard revised upward by $32,000,000 his estimate of state revenue and knocked the props from under arguments that the state would need more money for its major functions.

The resolution declared that rural roads in Texas are in a "deplorable" condition and that rural areas are fast becoming depopulated because of bad roads.

"There is great danger that in the future there may exist a shortage of food and clothing, and great suffering to humanity because there are not enough people left in the rural areas to produce the necessities of life," Chapman wrote.

Roads Big Issue

Rep. James Sparks of Sherman, opposing the resolution, declared that its wording put representatives in the position of favoring the waste of foodstuffs if they voted against it

The resolution asserted that "almost every member of the house, the senate and the governor promised the people a good farm-to-market road system.

"This will just let the people know that the house is not responsible for the failure to provide such a program", Chapman said.

A biennial appropriation of $27,313,052 for the state's eleemosynary institutions today awaited only house approval in order to be sent to the governor's desk.

The appropriation, recommended by a conference committee of members from both houses, received quick approval from the senate yesterday. The house, however, refused to consider the bill until 48 hours after its printing in the House Journal.

There was a slight possibility that the house might change its mind today and bring the big money bill up for consideration.

Increase of 11 Million.

As reported out of conference committee and approved by the senate, the appropriation is an increase of $11,609,076 over that of the current biennium.

It is $4,141,166 more than the figure recommended by the house.

While the house and senate spent most of yesterday stalling action on various bills, the house appropriations committee took decisive action by approving a resolution calling for an interim investigation of the Texas prison system.

Investigation Favored.

Sent to the house by a 6 to 4 vote, the resolution by Rep. Jimmy Horany of Archer City authorizes appointment of five representatives and five senators by the house speaker and the lieutenant governor, respectively, to make a complete and thorough investigation.

The committee is instructed to reports its findings to the house and senate, the governor, and the chairman of the state prison board at the next legislative session.

An appropriation of $5,000 for expenses of the investigation is included in the resolution.

Prison Business Studied.

Horany advised the appropriations committee that State Auditor C. H. Cavness was present to answer questions concerning the prison system's business office procedure, but committee members did not indicate a desire to ask questions.

At one point in discussion of the resolution, Rep. Claud Gilmer, appropriations committee chairman, commented that the prison system's methods of business operation probably would be studied by the investigating committee.

The state auditor later told a reporter that his office would complete a report on business procedures of the prison system in about two months.

Prison condtions with respect to prisoners were recently limelighted by a legislative committee report which said some inmates of the Texas penitentiary system are "treated worse than animals." The report was filed with the speaker of the house by Rep. Sam Sellers of Waco, chairman of the house penitentiaries committee.

Rep. George Parkhouse opposed Horany's resolution, arguing: "We've been told what's wrong down there, but we just sit around and don't do anything about it."

He suggested that until some buildings were built to house prisoners properly, there was no use for further investigations.

Partly cloudy weather is expected in West Texas, with much colder weather in the Del Rio-Eagle Pass area tomorrow.

Temperatures today range in the mid-30s in the Panhandle, and in the 40s in North and Central Texas. Warmest spot last night was Brownsville, with 80 degrees. Warmest spot in Texas yesterday was Laredo, with 99 degrees.

German state assemblies will select the council members in accordance with population and the proportionate strength shown by political parties in the last election. In other words, the most populous states and the largest parties will have the largest representations.

More in British Zone.

The British zone has 22,386,000 innahbitants against the American zone's 16,680,000. This would appear to give the British zone a dominant voice with a slightly Socialistic quality. The Social Democratic (Socialist) party, predominant in the British zone, last April polled 3,130,127 votes against the Conservative Christian Democratic Union's 2,747,775.

The Communist party's say in the new council will be small. In the British zone, the Communists polled 891,026 votes, showing their only real strength in the Ruhr, where they won 28 parliamentary seats against the Social Democrats' 64 and the Christian Democratic Union's 91. In the American zone, the Communists have been very weak. They won only 10 parliamentary seats in Wuerteemberg-Baden and Hesse, and none in Bavaria.

New Economic Policies.

The new council will create economic policies for the reconstruction of the two zones subject to the general provision of the Potsdam agreement and the approval of the British and American military governments.

In a joint announcement of their agreement, Clay on behalf of the United States military government and Robertson for the British, once again invited the Russians and French to join the American-British zonal economic merger, in effect since Jan. 1.

The announcement said that present bizonal agencies would come under the general policies laid down by the economic council and that, to preserve the maximum decentralization in the German government, the German states would be charged with the execution of the council's policies.

On cross examination, however, he admitted some of the deposits were made in 1943. A previous analysis of the account made by L. O. Taylor, postal inspector, covered only deposits since May, 1944. Taylor said 8.7 per cent of deposits made since then were in cash.

Other Figures Cited

Taylor's figures were based on slips prepared by both George and Asker Coleman, recalled to the stand today for cross examination, told Eckhardt he had not given a note to Robert C. Faulk, Jr., of Athens, for $5,000 until after the death of Faulk's father, the late Robert C. Faulk, Sr., Athens banker. Coleman yesterday told the court he had borrowed money from the elder Faulk to make investments in property at Marlin.

Testimony today by Coleman and the banker's son indicated the loan was made shortly before Faulk's death in 1941 and that the note was given to the son on August 25, 1945.

Eckhardt sought to have Coleman admit the note was made only after representatives of the Texas attorney general's office began an investigation of the orphanage. Coleman maintained, however, the investigation did not begin until March, 1946.

COUNTY FARM BUREAU HEAD ASSAILS SLASH IN DEPARTMENT FUNDS

"Hoover's economy movement was a picnic for the farmers compared with what will eventually happen if congress now cuts the heart out of our department."

This was the statement Wednesday by J. J. Kelt of Chatfield, president of the Navarro County Farm Bureau in discussing the recent action of the house appropriations committee in slashing the appropriations for the U. S. department of agriculture. Kelt is also a former member of the Texas legislature from Navarro county.

Kelt has wired Congressman Olin E. Teague of the Sixth Congressional District; Senators Connally and O'Daniel and Clifford Hope, chairman agriculture committee.

The head of the Navarro County Farm Bureau added that his group is supporting the Texas Farm Bureau Federation and the American Farm Bureau Federation "in this fight for the maintenance of these essential funds for the department of agriculture."

The proposed economy, it was stressed, is calculated to cripple the PMA, REA, school lunch program, extension service, crop insurance, research and marketing, and will kill the FSA tenant purchase program.

DECORATION DAY PICNIC

PICNIC FARE...Baked lima beans, a big cake...

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor.

Decoration Day is the first really official picnic day, though of course by this time the rushers-of-the-season have picnicked frequently.

In case Decoration Day should be on the chilly side this year, I suggest that you plan a picnic with at least one hot dish. You can make this dish at home and carry it to the picnic if you aren't going too far away. An oven-proof glass dish will keep food hot for a remarkably long time, especially if you put the top on it and wrap it up well for the trip in your picnic basket.

Baked Lima Beans.

2 cups dried lima beans, 1 quart water, 1 tablspcon salt, 1-4 tsp. dry mustard, 4 tsps. fat, 1-4 cup molasses, 1-2 cup grated cheese, 1 cup tomato juice, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, 6 onion slices, 5 green pepper strips.

Wash and look over lima beans, rejecting poor ones. Soak beans overnight in a quart of water. Add salt to beans and cook for one hour in the same water in which they were soaked. Remove from heat, drain, and stir into beans the mustfard, fat, molasses, cheese, tomato juice and chopped green pepper. Arrange onion slices and green pepper strips on top of beans. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for about an hour in a heat-resistant glass casserole dish.

With that dish you can serve sliced meat sandwiches if you want to, though they really aren't needed. A green salad is a fine addition, and some fruit to eat from the hand. Some families just have to have a sweet. Bake them a cake, like the one below and take it to the picnic in its pan. Again, a heat-resistant glass one is good, because it looks trim and neat to take to the picnic.

Graham Cracker Picnic Cake.

Cake:

1-2 cup shortening, 3-4 cup granulated sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup graham cracker crumbs, 1 1-2 cups sifted flour, 2 1-2 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 cup milk.

Cream shortening and beat in sugar gradually. Beat in vanilla. Add two eggs, one at a time, beating well. Stir in graham cracker crumbs. Add 1 1-2 cups flour, baking powder and salt, sifted together, alternately with milk. Pour batter into a well greased heat-resistant glass square cake dish—eight inch size. Bake in 350 degree oven for about 40 minutes.

Topping:

2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 cup brown sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 egg, 16 walnut meats.

Melt butter in saucepan. Add brown sugar, flour and egg, well beaten. Mix well. Cook over low direct heat about six to eight minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and pour over top of cake. Arrange walnut meats on topping. Return cake to 350 degree oven for about five to seven minutes or until topping is firm.

CORSICANA, TEX., MAY 30, 1947

THAT IRON CURTAIN

The Russian iron curtain should not be blamed altogether on the Soviets. Like their expansionist policy, it is inherited from the czars.

Ever since 1680 the Russian government has censored the printed word. Some performances of censors under the empire which would strike even Molotov as silly are cited in the New York Times by Sir Bernard Pares, Britisch expert on Russia. No new invention could be praised in print until the government had officially indorsed it. A writer on ancient history got into trouble for saying that some Roman emperors were murdered. The censor demanded that he say, "They were perished." One prize decision even forbade the publication of an arithmetic book because between the figures of a problem the censor found a row of dots.

Soviet wrongheadedness may seem less diabolical if viewed not as deliberate invention, but as a continuance of an earlier custom. Their methods may be just as difficult for us to deal with as if they were invented yesterday, but a little knowledge of history makes it easier for us to understand.

WILSON'S EARLY FOE

The death of James R. Nugent's widow recalls the start of Woodrow Wilson's political career. Nugent, a Democratic leader in Newark, N. J., was an important cog in the machine headed by James Smith, Jr. Smith and Nugent hoped to beat the Republican machine and make themselves the rulers of New Jersey by nominating some non-political figure like President Wilson of Princeton University. Unfortunately for them Wilson believed in serving the people and not the machine. He defeated Smith's attempt to become United States senator, and broke Nugent's power. The last straw was when Nugent, charging that the governor was using patronage against him, was turned out of Wilson's office.

"You're no gentleman!" cried the disconfited boss.

"You're no judge," returned Wilson, and their friendship ended. Nugent fought Wilson's nomination for the Presidency, but when he died in 1927, he had been unable to regain his hold in politics.

HATS

When a woman buys a hat,
She must ponder this and that.
Will it suit the gown she's wearing
For the luncheon she attends?
Will she have this shock to bear:
To discover when she's there
Ten or more exactly like it
On the foreheads of her friends?

Woman, be she thin or fat,
On her head must keep her hat
When she's at the luncheon table,
For all others to explore.
Not like man's; it has to be
In full view for all to see.
She can't leave her hat behind her
With the check-girl at the door.

Hats for men, to suit the trade,
By the millions can be made,
For a man is never bothered
By the things his fellows wear.
But a woman's joy is gone
If she meets another one,
And can see her bonnet bobbing
On another woman's hair.

INTERIOR WATERWAYS

With the big wars apparently over for a while, at least, it is natural for the constructive forces of the nation to turn again toward the rich interior of the nation and bring it to more fruitful use along many lines. One of the most obvious and long-planned porjects is the joining of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers with New York harbor for productive use on a big scale, and improvements along the Alleghany River. According to Yates Catlin, executive secretary of the Upper Allegheny Improvement:

"Our association supports a cause which is also your cause. We seek to tie in the New York Barge Canal and the New York harbor with the vast Mississippi waterway system, by completing the Allegheny River harbor and by rebuilding the old Genesee Canal in western New York State."

There should be many other enterprises getting under way soon in various parts of the country. The long-needed St. Lawrence Seaway is being discussed again. Perhaps this time it can be built.

American relations with Russia boil down to one point. Will the Soviets respond in like manner to a friendly approach, or will they not.

It is still an insoluble mystery, how the ancients ever got along without baseball.

Fly Disheartened By Cleanup Campaign As Less Breeding Places, Food And Fun May Result, Exclusive Sun "Interview" Reveals

By BOB CAMPBELL
Daily Sun Staff

Today, as an important part of the Corsicana Planning Board's second annual cleanup campaign, we interviewed the fly.

There are various kinds of flies, all of them distasteful, all of them buzzers. There is for instance, the stable fly. It is found in stables. And the horse fly, which, in reality, is just a stable fly taking a ride. There is the house fly. It is found in houses, usually on top of the butter. There is the bar-fly. Oh, well. And then there is the horn fly. It is never found around horns or musicians, as the name might imply. It is usually doing things to a cow or a cattle, not only to the horns but just all over

House Fly Interviewed

We concentrated on the house fly, although the barfly probably would have been easier. The stable fly and the horn fly wouldn't have a well developed urban viewpoint. Anything that hangs around a horse or a cow all of the time just naturally gets to thinking like a horse or a cow.

"Why," we asked the house fly, "is everybody against you?"

The fly, startled, stopped breeding for a minute—they love breeding—and thought it over.

People "Prejudiced"

"Prejudice", it replied. "Bias. Warped snobbishness. Why, the way some people act you're led to the incorrect conclusion that they were never in an outhouse themselves."

"Another thing", it continued, scraping his feet together to drop a little something here, a little bit there, "people are always complaining that we fly from the cow lot right to the potatoes on the dining room table. Let me tell you something, bud, the cows out there complain every time we fly from some of the potatoes to the cow lot. It's a hard life, please nobody life all the time for a fly."

"Why do you spend your life just making more flies, falling in the milk, making more flies?" we insisted, endeavoring, if possible, to find something of the fly's homework.

Operate In Cycles

"We operate in cycles", said the fly. "They're known as flycycles. Cute, no? Take me and my wife. I think she's in the garbage now tending to some new children. If we work it right we can be parents of a million flies in a month. Of course you've got to put your mind to it. The old lady—that's the wife—will find some manure and lay 100 or more eggs at a pop. They hatch into maggots in less than a day. Beautiful cherubic little maggots. We feed 'em on filth. Within 14 days the girl-flies are out laying eggs on their own. Every time a cow walks by we've got another housing problem on our hands. We have to house it up for 'em."

"You are an enemy of man", we accused.

Man Fly's Enemy?

"Man", the fly replied, "is an enemy to us".

"Man", he added, "is always trying to swat us. He puts paper out and we light on it. What happens? No more eggs 'n the manure pile".

"Man", he continued, "brings a lot of this upon himself. He leaves his sugar open, and we like sugar best. Like to mix our saliva with it and walk around the rim. Man gurgles his beer—not in this county, of course—and puts the bottle on the table. He likes it. We like it. We run around the rim. It's just naturally a better living in a place where there's beer. Man spits on the sidewalk, and we take a swim. Nobody likes it."

"Then, after all, the life of a fly, what with DDT and cleanup campaigns and all, isn't an exclusively happy one?"

"No," the fly replied, "life isn't all beer and spittles."

Mrs. Adele Bagby and daughter, Meland, will arrive on Friday from Oklahoma City for a visit in the home of Mrs. Minnie Sutton. Miss Bagby will return to Oklahoma City on Sunday and Mrs. Bagby will remain for a further visit.

PLANS UNCERTAIN AS EX-GOV. STEVENSON ENDS CAPITAL VISIT

WASHINGTON, May 29—(AP)—Former Governor Coke Stevenson of Texas left for home last night without clearing up whether he will seek the seat of Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex) in next year's elections.

His only comment to reporters' queries on the subject were that he is "thinking a lot about it" and that many people have written urging him to run.

Asked shortly after he arrived, to attend a conference on the hoof and mouth disease control program, whether he planned to see O'Daniel, he replied he probably would if he got a chance to visit Capitol Hill.

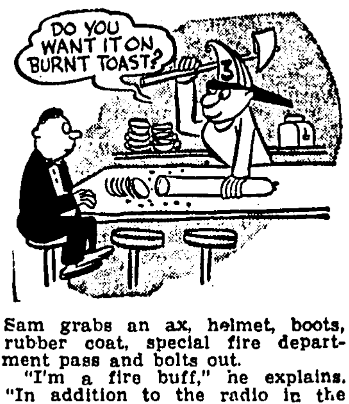
Cafe Life Is Hot For a Fire Buff

CHICAGO—(AP)—Sam Hollander runs a lunchroom, but his favorite pastime is eating smoke.

When the announcement of a big blaze comes over the air from the police broadcasting station,



DO YOU WANT IT ON BURNT TOAST?

Sam grabs an ax, helmet, boots, rubber coat, special fire department pass and bolts out.

"I'm a fire buff," he explains. "In addition to the radio in the lunchroom, I keep five at home. One in my bedroom stays on all night. I have trained myself to hear calls in my sleep."

Besides helping the professional flame fighters, Hollander takes movies of the fires, and later shows them to the firemen at their stations.

The Case Against Socialized Medicine

By W. P. BROWN
Of Johnson's Pharmacy

Proponents of Socialized Medicine are always working to get their legislation passed by Congress. Only an alert public, conscious of the evils such action would bring, can through their Senators and Representatives defeat these measures.

The evils of Socialized Medicine are many: for you it would mean increased cost of medical care; less efficient medical attention; limited choice of physician. For your doctor it would mean complete political control. By actual experience in other countries Socialized Medicine has proven unsuccessful.

Let your congressman know now that you do not wish to be subject to a Socialized Medical Program.

O. W. HOLMES RITES HELD WEDNESDAY AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Funeral services for O. W. Holmes, aged 57 years, who died in a Dallas hospital early Tuesday morning, were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. John's Episcopal church. The rites were conducted by Rev. Robert Q. Kennaugh, rector of the church. The body was forwarded to Grenada, Miss., his former home, for burial.

Holmes traveled several years before becoming manager of the Navarro Hotel five years ago. He had resided in Corsicana 11 years. He was a member of the Vestry of St. John's Episcopal church, Hotel Greeters of America, the American Legion, Civitan and Corsicana Country Clubs.

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Esther Broadstreet, to whom he was married 25 years ago in Mississippi; a sister, Mrs. M. L. Perkins, Batesville, Miss.; a brother, Charles Holmes, California, and several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were R. R. Cocke, W. A. Lang, Sr.; E. Y. Cunningham, Dr. C. B. Bronson, Judge A. P. Mays, Doyle West, H. D. Johnson, W. V. Mowlam, E. M. Polk, Jr., and C. E. Rittersbacher, all vestrymen of the church.

All business firms located in the Navarro Hotel building closed during the funeral hour.

Twelve graduates will receive diplomas, E. C. Butler, superintendent, has announced.

The baccalaureate sermon was delivered Sunday night by Rev. Dan Sharpley, pastor of the Emhouse Baptist church.

The eighth grade graduation commencement exercises will be held Thursday night with John C. Calhoun, former Corsicana mayor, as the speaker.

Those to receive diplomas are Norma Jean Loper, valedictorian; Monte Ray Freemar, salutatorian; Ann Moore, Curtis Bell, Travis Harrell, Pete Thompson, Jo Ann Lambert, Johnny Harrison, LaVerne Williams, Hattie Herrington, James Loyd Estell and Billy Bassham.

Commencement Speaker.

Charles T. Banister, county attorney for Navarro county, will deliver the commencement address for the graduates of Streetman high school there on Friday night, May 30.

MRS. W. A. WALTHALL FUNERAL SERVICES TUESDAY AFTERNOON

WORTHAM, May 27.—(Spl.)—Funeral rites for Mrs. W. A. Walthall of Fort Worth, who deid in Waco, were held Tuesday afternoon from the Methodist church with interment in the Wortham cemetery. Rev. W. Fisher conducted the services.

Mrs. Walthall was a native of Wortham. She was the daughter of the late Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Miller, pioneers of this community. She resided here until eight years ago when she moved to Fort Worth. Mrs. Walthall was a member of the Methodist church, WBA, and Eastern Star.

Surviving are four sons, Roy Walthall and Lyndale Walthall, both of Waco; Cecil Walthall, Anton, and Robert Walthall, Fort Worth; four daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Kollogg and Mrs. Margaret Switzer, both of Fort Worth; Mrs. Gladys Jones, Dallas, and Mrs. M. Keel, Streetman; a brother, Edgar Miller, Fort Worth; two sisters, Mrs. Lee Byers, Wortham and Mrs. Ella Schilers, San Antonio; 22 grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, and other relatives.

Pallbearers were the four sons and Robert and Paul Switzer.

POWELL COMMUNITY CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN IS WELL ADVANCED

Residents of Powell put the cart before the horse, and it looks as if it worked out all right.

Although a community meeting designed to acquaint the residents of that community with the necessity of conducting a thorough cleanup campaign was not held until Monday night, the residents had already done most of their cleaning.

Miss Loreta Gaillard, city sanitarian, and C A Purcell, county sanitarian, held the meeting as one of a series sponsored in connection with the Corsicana Planning Board's annual drive, which this year was extended to rural areas.

They discovered that not only had Powell gathered its mounds of debris, but most of it had already been hauled away. County trucks were not used and will not be needed there, the sanitarians were told. The rest of the accumulation will b disposed of during the week, and then a community-wide weeding cutting will be held.

Tuesday's motion picture schedule included a meeting at Richland at 3 p. m., and one at the Rice Methodist church at 7:30 p. m.

The pictures on the fly and the mosquito will be shown to a meeting of Zion's Rest Negroes at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Thursday the sanitarians will go to Kerens.

At 8 p. m. Friday in a meeting sponsored by the Negro Chamber of Commerce, Corsicana Negro residents will see the pictures and be told of the benefits to be derived from close co-operation with the municipality. Ben Morgan, Negro leader, will preside at the session.

Resigns As Secretary.

Mable Wilkinson, secretary in the office of L. L. Powell, county judge, has resigned to enter business in Lubbock.

Mrs. Joyce Johnson of Kerens, formerly secretary in the county attorney's office, will become secretary in Judge Powell's office Wednesday, it was announced Tuesday.

Mrs. Wilkinson formerly was Navarro county clerk for several terms and had been secretary in the judge's office since Jan. 1, this year.

GEORGE O. NOKES, JR. PRINCIPAL SPEAKER FOR MEMORIAL DAY

George O. Nokes, Jr., state representative, 58th District, will be the principal speaker at the Memorial Day services Friday, May 30 in City Park under the leadership of Johnson-Wiggins Post No. 22, American Legion.

L. V. Majors, post commander, Tuesday extended an invitation to all veterans and the general public to attend the services at 10 a. m. Friday at the city park monument to pay homage to the dead of both World Wars.

The Rev. Erwin F. Bohmfalk, pastor of the First Methadist church, will deliver the invocation. Music for the services will be by the American Legion Band. Songs will be by the noted Texas baritone, John Gravelle.

Jr. College Teachers Getting Better Pay

AUSTIN, May 28.—(Spl.)—Salaries of junior college instructors and administrators in Texas are better this year than they were last year.

That was the report by Dr. C. C. Colvert, professor and consultant in junior college education at the University of Texas, after a study of salaries of 454 instructors in 17 junior colleges in the state.

The median salary for junior college instructors was $2,339 last year, and this year (1946-47) it is $2855. Some Texas junior colleges have a starting salary of $3,000 for master's degree instructors. In one Texas college an instructor with no degree is making $4,000.

Presidents' salaries range from $8,400 to $4,000, and deans' salaries from $6,250 to $3.000.

Ennis Will Honor Railroad War Dead

Formal dedication of a park and monument honoring employes of the Southern Pacific Lines who lost their lives in World War II, will take place Friday, May 30, at 2 p. m. in Ennis, according to announcement today by Ivan E. Dycus, manager of the Ennis chamber of commerce.

Col. J. W. Keen, Jr., USMC, will deliver the dedicatory address and unveil the monument. Others participating in the ceremonies will be railroad officials and employes, detachments from Navy, Marine Corps and the Army.

Plans are being made to accommodate several thousand visitors for the event.

signs that the going may be tough if the goal is to be reached.

For the bills which make up the balance of the president's overall $37,500,000,000 spending estimate are for local rivers and harbors projects and the Veterans' Administration, in addition to the war department and some assorted federal agancies.

The appropriations committee may have trouble keeping Republicans in line when it comes to cutting funds for veterans and rivers and harbors projects.

Twelve of them joined a solid Demicratic front last night in a futile effort to add $30,000,000 for the school lunch program, $25,000,000 for the Rural Electrification Administration's lending fund, and $134,385,710 for soil conservation payments. The appropriations committee had ordered all three reductions.

Each move to make those increases failed by a roll-call count of 180 to 174, as Republican leaders exerted their best efforts to get their votes to the floor.

EUROPEAN TOUR IS PLANNED BY LOCAL MINISTER AND WIFE

Applications for three passports for Corsicana citizens were filed in the office of J. C. Gaston, district clerk Wednesday for forwarding to the state department, Washington, D. C.

Two of the applications are for Dr. and Mrs. Jared I. Cartlidge of the First Baptist church, who plan to fly from New York City July 7, for Europe, where they will visit England, will proceed through France via Paris (three days), and on to Rome, Italy (three days), by bus, back through Switzerland, Germany and to Denmark by train. They will attend the Baptist World Alliance in Copenhagen, Denmark, and then will return to England through Holland and Belgium, where they will fly back to New York August 12. They leave New York on the night of July 7 and will have breakfast in London the following morning.

Roy Simmons, Jr., aged 22 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roy Simmons, 615 West Third avenue, is seeking a passport to Venezuela, S. A., and countries between the USA and his destination. Simmons plans to be employed by the Creole Petroleum Company and may be out of this country for two years, according to the application.

Completes Course

M-Sgt. Charles C. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie King, Route 1, Corsicana, was graduated this week from a 16-weeks technical course in airplane mechanics with the Air Training Command at Keesler Field, Miss. As a result of his training, King is qualified for further specialized training in maintenance of heavy bombers, cargo planes, jet and rotor aircraft.

suitable time for reducing government revenue.

Milikin estimated the change in the 15 per cent reduction bracket will add $62,300,000 to the cost of the bill, in terms of lost federal revenue.

Senate Democratic Leader Barkley was the only one of the five senate conferees who did not sign the conference report. He voted against the bill yesterday when it passed the senate 52 to 34.

If both houses act finally Monday the bill will be speeded to the White House.

Decision Up to Truman

President Truman then would have 10 days to approve or veto it. He has given no recent indication of his intentitons, although he has said repeatedly that he does not consider this the proper time to cut taxes .

Even the most enthusiastic Republican advocates of an immediate tax reduction admitted that yesterday's 52-34 vote offered no hope that a veto could be overridden in the senate. A two-thirds majority is necessary to override.

As amended by the senate, the bill provides for the following cuts in present taxes, over a full year:

Proposd Cuts Explained

30 per cent off for persons whose incomes after exemptions and deductitons are $1,000 a year or less.

30 to 20 per cent on net incomes between $1,000 and approximately $1,400.

20 per cent between $1,400 and $79,700.

15 per cent from 79,700 to 320$,400.

10.5 per cent on all above $302,400.

The 15 per cent bracket was written in by the finance committee in answer to complaints that the original $1,400 to $302,400 spread of the 20 per cent bracket, as voted by the house, was too wide.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hughes will arrive from Austin over the week end for a visit in the home of Mrs. Louise Pace King.

George L. Bristow, aged 72 years, of Palestine, died in Baylor Hospital, Dallas, early Thursday morning.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 11 o'clock at the Liberty cemetery near Palestine where interment will be made. The rites will be conducted by Roy Hendricks.

Surviving are his wife of Palestine; five sons, J. C. Bristow, Corsicana; B. W. Bristow, Texas City; R. L. Bristow, Pearland; J. F. Bristow, Palestine, and Ira Bristow, Athens; four daughters, Mrs. Mae Quick and Mrs. Bertha Fitzgerald, both of Palestine; Mrs. Ethel Coleman, Manvel, and Mrs. Annie L. Malone, Tyler; a sister, Mrs. Fannie Rainey, Fort Worth; 25 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Corley Funeral Home will direct.

Funds Cut Reflected Here.

Anticipation of a possible Congressional cut in agriculture funds for 1948 was reflected locally Wednesday as Cline Young, local ACA administrator, reported that the state office had notified him to stop issuing prior approvals and purchase orders and to cancel all orders for supplies not already in the mail.

The apparent reason for the notification, Young said, was the uncertainty of receiving the appropriation originally planned on. The anticipated cut will affect the money which has already been earned so far during the 1947 program, he said.

Married Friday.

James E. Reeves and Dorothy Walker were married Friday, May 23, at 6 p. m., the Rev. A. J. Kirkland, pastor of the Missionary Baptist church, performing the ceremony.

LABOR LAW

man's decision. Congress probably will not act until early next week

Compromise Explained

The compromise bill contains these provisions:

1. Authorization for the government to obtain injunctions to block "national paralysis" strikes, such as a coal or steel tie-up. The injunctions would remain in effect 80 days while the dispute was mediated.

2. A new national labor relations board set-up. The board would have five members instead of three as now.

3. A ban on the closed shop, under which employers can hire only union members. The more common union shop is permitted when a majority of workers vote for it.

Injunctions Provided

4. A prohibition against jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts. The NLRB could get injunctions to block them.

5. A provision creating a new federal mediation agency, independent of the labor department.

6. Health and welfare funds set up since January 1, 1946, and administered solely by unions, are outlawed.

7. Parties to a collective bargaining contract must serve notice 60 days in advance of expiration of the pact if they wish to change its terms.

Picketing Regulated

8. It would be an unfair labor practice for unions to keep non-striking workers from their jobs by mass picketing or through violence in picketing.

9. Unions are prohibited from charging dues and initiation fees which the NLRB judges to be "excessive or discriminatory".

10 Another house section accepted by the senate, with modifications, bars unions from forcing an employer to pay wages to men who do not work on a job but who are kept, at the union's insistence, on a standby basis.

the anti-Communist Smallholders party.

A government announcement on May 14 said Nagy would leave that day for a three-week vacation in Switzerland and that Deputy Premier Matyas Takosi, a Communist, would be left in charge. Private sources in Budapest said Nagy probably would stay longer than three weeks.

The government announcement followed by two days reports that Nagy was plannnig to leave for Switzerland and Paris to stall off another Communist-inspired "crisis" in his coalition government.

The informant said Bela Kovacs, frömer secretary-general of the Small Holders party who was arrested by the Russians recently on a charge of espionage, had implicated Nagy, Varga and Gyongyosi in a deposition given the Hungarian government.

Reds Dominate Nation.

The government now, in effect, is dominated by the Communists, although the Small Holders party still has a majority in the National assembly.

All local news papers published a communique from Russian Lt. Gen. V. P. Sviridov saying Soviet authorities had questioned Kovacs and had decided not to release him to the Hungarians, as promised, but to keep him in custody and supply the governmeint with his deposition.

A recent American note charged Kovacs was arrested by the Russians only after the Communist party had failed by other means to remove him from public life.

Nagy's Secretary Held.

Prime Minister Nagy's private secretary, Dr. Ferenc Capocs, was arrested last night by the Communist-controlled political police, and his apartment was searched, political sources said.

An emergency cabinet meetnig was held last night and Nagy was reached by telephone in Switzerland. It was reported that he was unsure whether he was considered retired from office immediately. He was said to have told Acting Premier Rakosi that he might or might not return to Hungary tomorrow.

DRUG USE DANGEROUS EXCEPT BY DOCTORS, HEALTH CHIEF WARNS

AUSTIN, May 29.—(Spl.)—"It is an unfortunate fact that some people are willing to risk their health—possibly even their lives—by prescribing for themselves and taking a drug that they have read about somewhere and which has been termed a "miracle drug," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"Although such drugs as penecillin, streptomycin, thiouracil and sulfa drugs have been of great value in combating diseases that have heretofore been very difficult to control, nevertheless, they can be very dangerous products in untrained hands. They were never intended to be used promiscuously for self-medication," the state health officer asserted.

If a pharmacist refuses to sell a particular drug and explains that it cannot be supplied without a physician's prescription the would-be purchaser should not become provoked. That pharmacist is giving sound public health advice and is also complying with the law. The state health officer declared that self-medication is never advisable, and even "miracle drugs" should be taken only when a doctor prescribes them.

PROPOSED SLASH IN AGRICULTURE FUNDS WILL AFFECT COUNTY

The action of the house of representatives in slashing the department of agriculture budget for the coming year will work considerable hardship on the farmers of Navarro county, Cline T. Young, AAA administrative officer said Thursday.

"The cut will affect the payments a farmer has earned for 1947 practices and the result will affect the entire community."

During the year of 1946-47 the farmers in the county earned $165,000 in practice payments alone, Young said, and estimated that already there had been $131,000 in practices authorized for this year.

"If the cut goes through, this will mean that the payment will run from 60 to 100 percent."

Young declared that the budget cut would not affect the office personnel in the courthouse since there was only a four million dollar slash for that division, howhowever, the state offices received a 90 percent cut.

"The budget cut will affect immediately the value and production of farm products. The cut will force prices down to the support prices, which are established on a specified percent of parity price as of July 1."

The problem worrying Young and others connected with the AAA program is the slash in soil building practices. Office data shows Navarro county farmers only became interested in these practices to halt erosion in 1945 with 1947 the first year the county allotment of funds was exhausted.

"In 1948 it will cut out legumes, terracing and other soil building practices. The cut will also cut out the 30 percent of tariff receipts used for financing the disposal of farm surpluses."

Young pointed out the importance of the slashed practices with a chart issued recently by the A. and M. extension service that showed yields increased with the use of legumes and phosphate by 58 percent for corn, 41 percent for grain sorghums, and 60 percent for cotton.

With the use of legumes only, corn increased 41 percent; grain sorghums 41 percent, and cotton 46 percent.

Announce Arrival of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Sammie C. Atkinson announce the arrival of a daughter, Sherry May, on May 23rd at the Navarro Clinic.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Boyd and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Atkinson.

stone-glass, machinery and aircraft industries.

Texas is also continuing its upward swing towards industrialization, the TUCC reported. During April 112 new industries were established, creating jobs for an additional 3,350 persons.

Construction led the way in increased job openings, but the expected building boom failed to materialize. Home construction is slowing down because of high costs but commercial and industrial building has speeded up, the TUCC said.

Other major employment gains during April were in manufacturing industries, particularly oil field machinery, ship-building glass, lumber and chemicals. Only meat packing employment showed a sharp downward trend.

As a conversation piece, however it was unfortunate that it was riddled by triteness.

Four out of five persons who commented on the weather Thursday said: "Short summer, wasn't it?"

The barometer, usually a reliable instrument, is unable to predict things like that, either.

changed to the high school auditorium at the same time.

Superintendent of Schools W. H. Norwood disclosed that the governor's speech would be broadcast to afford the many Corsicana people an opportunity to hear the address if not able to attend the graduation.

Plans were made many months ago to hold the affair in an outdoor ceremony, but the cold wave caused school officials to make a change in the site.

Governor Jester, a former graduate of the school, will speak to the class of 117 with which his youngest daughter, Joan, is to graduate. The governor has announced his address as "A Mountain-Top Experience"

Mrs. H. R. Stroube, president of the board of education, will present the diplomas and Armistead will award honors. Norwood will introduce the governor.

the purposes for which it originally was appropriated.

Billion "Saving" Juggled.

The committee did not claim the cancelled $1,100,000,000 as a saving in its goal to cut $6,000,000,000 from the President's overall $37,500,000,000 budget for next year but said the money, if not rescinded, might be spent. By the committee's action, the unobligated funds revert to the treasury's general fund.

More than half—$293,936,216—of the total recommended reduction was leveled at war department civilian and officer personnel.

The committee see it believes which it said would reduce civilian jobholders by 74,631 and officer personnel by 20,100, including 2,800 warrant officers. It also ordered a reduction in flying pay for air corps personnel without specifying how the cut should be applied.

No reductions were recommended in the number of enlisted men, nurses, dieticians, physiotherapists or research and development employes.

The committees said it believes the army's request for funds to retain 146,000 officers "is excessive." In support of that statement the lawmakers cited testimony given last year to the house military committee in which the army listed the planned officer strength of the peacetime army at 100,000, or roughly one officer for each 10 enlisted men.

HEALTH OFFICIALS TURN ATTENTION TO THREAT OF TYPHOID

City and county health workers Wednesday turned their attention to the Kerens area as a Negro woman was found with typhoid fever.

Dr. Will Miller, acting director of the Corsicana-Navarro Health Unit, said the case was reported by the attending physician. The location of the outbreak was between Kerens and Rural Shade, he said.

Staff members of the health unit, including Miss Lila Rutherford, senior public health nurse, were in the area Thursday to vaccinate those who had not been innoculated. Vaccinations also will be given at the unit's office in the basement of the State National Bank building.

Dr. Miller, commenting on preliminary findings of tests conducted here last week in a Rocky Mountain spotted fever death, which held the disease was not apaprent, said the diagnosis still stood.

"Fluids taken from the patients could easily not produce signs of the disease", he said, "inasmuch as they were taken after injection of penicillin and other counteractants."

The state health department is conducting more exhaustive tests by which it hopes to establish conclusively the identity of the malady.

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS LOOKING FORWARD TO SUMMER OF CAMPING

This week is examination week in most Navarro County schools. Most kids are looking forward to a summer of fun of some sort beginning next week. But among the Boy Scouts hereabouts there has been more than mere looking forward—there's been definite planning.

In Scout circles, where a merit badge means more than a new car, and an Eagle Scout is looked upon with awesome reverence, the plans for the summer concern camping.

Over a hundred Navarro county scouts have already signed up to attend one summer camp and more are expected. The camps are Camp Wisdom near Dallas and Camp Constantin, near Possum Kingdom Dam. Both are sponsored by the Circle Ten Council of the Boy Scouts, of which the Navarro district is a member.

Camps Open June 9

The camps will be open from June 9 until the last of July, and any Boy Scout troop can attend them for one or more weeks during this period of time.

Troops already signed up include organizations from Zion's Rest, State Home, Rice, Frost and Richland. Most of these have chosen Camp Wisdom for their trip, although Camp Constantin has received some consideration.

J L. Shanks, scout field executive for the Navarro district, has offered the following information for scouts and parents, concerning the camps:

A scout that is a member of a troop not going to camp may go with another troop if the scoutleader of the other troop is willing to take him.

Health Certificate

Scouts going to camp are required to fill out an application and get a health certificate from a local physician. These are rechecked at camp by the camp physician.

A well-organized program will be available at the camps which will include swimming, boating, handicraft, games and dramatization

As to meals, the scouts may cook their own, under supervision, or eat at the camp hall. Three different plans for meals are offered.

Further information on the camps can be furnished by troop scoutleaders.

Eligible to Attend

The institutions in Corsicana sponsoring Boy Scout Troops that are eligible to attend camp are the Third Avenue Presbyterian Church, with William Elliot as scoutleader; Eleventh Avenue Methodist Church, Ernest Jones, scoutleader; First Methodist Church, Don Winslow, scoutleader; Missionary Baptist Church, E. T. Wyrick, scoutleader; First Baptist Church, scoutleader to be supplied Zion's Rest School, R. C. Marshall, scout leader; State Orphan's Home, E. E. Collins, scoutleader

Troops Outside Corsicana

The following troops outside Corsicana are also eligible to attend scout camp:

Troop 239, Frost, D. B. Palmer, scoutleader; Troop 241, Rice, L. L. Griffin, scoutleader; Troop 259, Roane, Milton Johnston, scoutleader; Troop 281, Richland, G. H. Campbell, scoutleader; Troop 28?, Streetman, and Troop 284, Wortham, Raymond Zoda, acting scoutleader.

Cub Packs, sponsored by the Lee Houston and Travis schools, and under the leadership of R. H. Doke, W. J. Deford and I. B. Daniel, respectively, do not do overnight camping and hence are not eligible to attend the camps.

Basic Completed

Pvt Lavalle Denbow, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Denbow, 910 South Nineteenth street, recently completed basic training at Ft. Lewis, Washington, and will be assigned to a specialist school for advanced training. He qualified as a sharpshooter.

CLUB NEWS

Mildred H-D Club

The Mildred Home Demonstration Club met at Mildred High School on Monday, May 26th, with nineteen regular members and one visitor, Mrs. H. N. Henderson, in attendance. Standing committees gave reports and suggestions for the yearbook were made by members of the ylearboow commitee.

Mrs. Gene Tyner spoke on "Cotton and You" and Mrs. C. R. Brashear presented facts on "The History of Cotton."

The next meeting of the club will be held at Mildred High School on June 9th with Miss Eva Sue Merrit in charge of a discussion of "Frozen Foods." Members of the 4-H Clubs and their mothers will be invited to the meeting.

COUNTY TAX ROLLS ARE BEING STUDIED BY COMMISSIONERS

Navarro county commissioners' court is continuing its review of the current tax rolls.

It is understood that the court is giving the renditions throughout the county a close investigation and many property owners will receive notices soon to appear before the court as a board of equalization to decide whether or not the raises are to become effective.

Inequalities are being eliminated where possible, it was stated; renditions under those of last year as turned in are expected to be raised, and where the commissioners think renditions are too low, raises may become effective.

After the review has been completed, however, notices will be sent to property owners where any raise is sought and the owners will have an opportunity of discussing the matter before the court sitting as a board of equalization before a final decision is reached.

No date has been announced as to when the hearings are contemplated.

Rotarians Guests Of Industrial School

Seven members of the Corsicana Rotary Club attended a special Rotary dinner, given by the St. Paul Industrial Training School near Malakoff Tuesday.

The Corsicana Rotarians joined with the Malakoff club in attending the dinner, extended by J. D Smothers, superintendent of the Negro school for unfortunate Negro children.

Those attending included Rex Bounds, president, King Elliott, secretary, Bill Bruss, Fred D. Prince, Tippy Sheets, Bob Reading and Monty Davidson.

Parents of Son.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Elliott are the parents of a son, Lawrence Cameron, born Saturday, May 24, at 8:45 p. m. at the P. and S. Hospital, weighing nine pounds and three ounces. Mother and son are reported doing nicely.

Drilling Continues In Deep Oil Test

Drilling operations are going on on the J. L. Collins No. 1, Lillie Barnett, B. G. Balthrop survey, two miles north of Bazette after a drill stem test in the lower Upper Glenrose.

A stem test was made at a showing encountered at the 5.140-46 ft. strata, but the test showed only a show of oil and operations are continuing down towards the contract level of 6,500 feet or 300 feet into the Travis Peak strata.

The Paluxy section was topped at 4,210, Latest information Wednesday was that the well was down to 5,154 in the Glenrose.

Site of the well is along the old Bazette fault formula, a prolific production area in the Woodbine section. Good showings were encountered in the Woodbine on the present test.
